Membership Terms and Conditions

Members are responsible for use of their library card and for all items on loan to them.

Please Do:

- Take good care of all items and ensure that they are returned in good time for enjoyment by the rest of the community
- Protect items from any damage, including, weather, food, moisture, excessive heat, sand or the like.
- Report any item that is lost or damaged
- Not undertake any repairs at home or make marks or notes on the items.

Please Be Aware:

- Members may be charged for items that are damaged, defaced or lost. Assessment of any charges are made by the Denmark Public Library in conjunction with State Library of WA
- Membership entitlements may be suspended if overdue items are not returned, or fees and charges are unpaid.

Members must also comply with all other requirements under the Library Board of Western Australia Act 1951, Library Board Regulations and the Denmark Public Library Public IT Use Policy. Available overleaf.

I hereby agree to the Membership Terms and Conditions

Members must comply with the Library Board of Western Australia Act 1951, the Library Board Registered Public Libraries Regulations 1985 and the Denmark Public Library Public Internet Access Conditions of Use.

Damaged items

Members may be required to pay for the repair costs of library items returned in a damaged or imperfect condition as determined by Denmark Public Library.

Lost items

Members may be required to pay the cost of items lost or not returned after notice requesting the return has issued. If the item is one volume, or part of a set or series and it is found impractical to replace that volume or part, the member may be required to pay the cost of replacement of the whole volume, or at the discretion of the Denmark Public Library, compensate the library for the loss or damage sustained.

Denmark Public Library Public Internet Access

Conditions of Use

1. All computer access in the library is provided free of charge. Users must adhere to any booking arrangement imposed by the library on the use of computers.
2. Computers are available on a first come, first served basis and are provided as a self-service facility. Sessions will be limited to 60 minutes duration per session. Extension of time may be possible upon request but is dependent on demand.
3. Users must not intentionally access material, which is pornographic, offensive or objectionable to other members of the public or staff. The library has a duty under the WA Censorship Act 1996 and to the Broadcasting Services Amendment (Online Services) Act 1999 to ensure that material of this nature is not displayed in the library.
4. Users must not intentionally misuse the equipment or the service and must comply with staff directives. The service is to be used in a responsible manner, taking into consideration the laws on copyright, privacy, harassment, and libel at all times. The library reserves the right to monitor and record the use of computers.
5. The library does not guarantee or accept any liability for the information's accuracy, authoritativeness, timeliness, or usefulness for any purpose.
6. The library can accept no responsibility for any error or damage to property caused by equipment, nor for any consequential loss or damage to disks, data or programs.
7. Children are permitted to use the internet unattended, but supervision or restriction of a child's access to the internet is the responsibility of a parent or legal guardian. For the library's purpose, a child is defined as a person less than 18 years.
8. Users shall not attempt to use the computers for any purpose other than the options provided on the system and are not permitted to modify the installed hardware or software in any way. Tampering with, altering, editing, or damaging computer hardware or software will be grounds for revocation of computer use privileges, and may result in suspension of library privileges.
9. Users must pay the current charges for all pages printed including test pages and wastage not caused by printer malfunction.

The library reserves the right to:

1. Deny access or to restrict access to certain sites and/or material
2. Terminate a client's internet privileges if any of these conditions are breached
3. Terminate use of the computer without recompense at its absolute discretion
