Author Visit - Gleni Bailey

Gleni Bailey began to write children's stories due to her love of nature and desire to teach from learned experiences. Based at her home farm in Western Australia, Gleni's motivation came from the myriad of characters surrounding her. Whilst the antics of chickens, cats, sheep, other farm animals, and wildlife amused her, they also inspired, providing the context for her to subtly impart many life lessons whilst also entertaining readers.

When: Thursday 9 October

Where: Denmark Public Library

Time: 10.30am-12pm

Age: Children 5 years plus

Join children's author Gleni Bailey for a special reading of her brand-new book Chooky's Salon, plus a morning packed with fun activities.
